

Do not approve the petition by BellSouth to stop regulation of BROADBAND service. This will squash competition and adversely impact the market. Such an action to stop regulating broadband service is not in the best interests of the American people.